Visitors to the Regina Round-Up in May were favoured with some attractive and memorable souvenirs. One of these, taken from the old Bank of Western Canada $4.00 note, reproduced the bill's main features with minor alterations to make it appropriate for the occasion: "Round-Up" replaced "Bank", to make the note read "The Round-Up of Western Canada", while "Regina, Sask., May 20, 1956" was substituted for the lower half of the large word "FOUR". This will serve to remind those who attended of a most happy and memorable occasion.

On the initiative of Mr. Alexander Watt, the Waterloo County Coin Club has been organized recently in Kitchener, Ontario. At their inaugural meeting on June 11, each of the seven charter members was given a $1000 Confederate reprint bill bearing the signatures of all who were present. In the election of officers, Mr. Harvey Brubacher of Preston became President of the Club and Mr. J. A. Mackenzie their Secretary-Treasurer.

Despite the rapid growth of interest in Canadian numismatics, our Association is having an uphill struggle to make ends meet at the present time. This challenge must be faced, and will undoubtedly be overcome. In the meantime, members will understand that these "growing pains", attendant upon initial production of the Journal, call for their active support in such forms as more advertising, and their patience with certain printing and mailing difficulties that have arisen. Every effort is being made to remedy these quite temporary upsets, annoying and unfortunate though they are, so that we solicit the continued loyalty of our advertisers, and the indulgence of our membership for any delays or inconvenience which they may have suffered.

Mr. Robert H. Lloyd of North Tonawanda, N.Y., agrees that "star" notes are quite common, but points out that they should not be considered oddities or freaks. Printed in large quantities as replacements to keep the note count right, they should be regarded as an integral part of the regular issue. This applies, equally, to the production of Canadian "asterisk" notes.

The 1936 "dot" dime found recently by a Vancouver housewife is reported sold for $600. We believe this to be the coin mentioned in the current report from Chapter No. 7.

Announcement comes from India of an official change to decimal coinage at the beginning of April, 1957. There are now sixteen annas to the rupee, which has a current value of twenty-one Canadian cents; the revised rupee will consist of one hundred units called "nava paisa", or new money. The coin's legend in Hindi will state its value in rupees or fractions thereof.

Notice Regarding Annual Meeting

The attention of members is called to Clause V, Section 1 of the Constitution of the Association, which reads as follows:

The Constitution may be altered or amended by a vote of the majority of the members present at any general meeting. Proposed changes must be submitted to the Executive at least sixty days previous to such meeting, and shall be circulated to the members at least two weeks before the date of such meeting.

Any member proposing changes or amendments in the Constitution, therefore, should act in accordance with the above. It is regretted that it has not yet been possible to get copies of the Constitution into the hands of members, and it is hoped that this may be accomplished within the next week or two.

Mr. J. K. Curtis, President of Chapter No. 1, has consented to act as chairman of the committee to deal with amendments to the Constitution, and any communications in this regard should be addressed to him at 66 Grove Ave., Ottawa, Ont.

Western Round-Up of Coin Collectors in Regina, on May 20, 1956

Perfect weather welcomed forty-four visitors as they arrived at the Drake Hotel in Regina for the first Western Round-Up of Coin Collectors, sponsored by the Regina Coin Club to bring numismatists together for their first general reunion in our Great West. Manitoba was well represented, with nine guests from Winnipeg. Saskatchewan contributed friends from Avonlea, Duval, Hanley, Punnichy and Yorkton. From Alberta, there were numismatists of Medicine Hat and Standard, and from the East, Major Sheldon S. Carroll of Ottawa, first President of the C.N.A.

Registration opened at 9 A.M. under the kind and capable direction of Miss Gwen Sentis and Mr. Duncan McKellar. After signing the guest book, visitors received their name cards and ribbons, and a programme for the day. Two orchids were pinned upon each of them with the compliments of Mr. T. J. Hardie, President of the Regina Coin Club; our host had had these gorgeous blooms flown in from Hawaii for the occasion.

Mr. Nell introduced newcomers to those present; the time went quickly as we chatted about coins and got acquainted; others looked over the Regina members' splendid exhibits or dealt at the four bourse tables. Each display was distinctively presented. Mr. Tannahill, for example, showed his outstanding collection of Canadian tokens, — more than four hundred of them, including many rarities. Items of special interest included a North West Company token, the Hudson Bay set, the Colonial coins, a Lesslie twopence, the Bank of Montreal side-view penny and half-penny, as well as a number of French Regime and other choice pieces. It was a real pleasure for all present to have the opportunity of seeing these gems; Mr. Tannahill's collection is rated one of the best in Western Canada.

Mr. Duncan of Hanley, Sask., displayed notable crowns of the world from his collection of nearly four hundred. Miss Sentsis, now a resident of California, had a general selection featuring gold, silver and copper proofs of several countries, coins of Edward VIII and a medal of his reign, Maundy sets, and a group of Canadian five dollar gold pieces, all most attractively mounted. Mr. Nell exhibited the complete range of Canadian silver dollars in Whitman folders. Mr. Hardie brought many examples from his extensive gold collection, including all of the Canadian five and ten dollar gold coins, the two dollar pieces of Newfoundland, United States Indian Head quarter-eagles, the 1887 Jubilee set of Great Britain in proof, and various foreign coins. In addition, he had some rare Canadian tokens, a 1921 five cent piece, and a very fine specimen of the 1936 "dot" cent. Mr. Watts drew attention with his four superb coronation medals, among them a large silver medal of 1937 in its red leather case. Mr. Haddad placed on view gold coins and paper money of Newfoundland, Canadian, United States and foreign gold, as well as Canadian federal and chartered bank notes.

Following an excellent luncheon, automobiles took us for a tour of the R.C.M.P. Training Centre. In their auditorium we saw two films entitled "Doubtful Dollars" and "Know Your Money", both well done and demonstrating modern methods of detecting counterfeit money. We were then conducted by R.C.M.P. courier to their Museum, famous for its souvenirs of the early West. Here we had a fascinating time inspecting firearms, uniforms and various objects associated with Louis Riel, the "Mad Trapper" Johnson and many others. One centre of attention was a case containing counterfeit coins and notes, along with the equipment used in producing them. In the Chapel we saw their famous stained glass windows, two at the front representing members of the Force in their bright red jackets. Next, we visited the stables, where the gleaming black horses used for Musical Rides were a joy to behold. There was great enthusiasm over the beauty and cleanliness of both horses and stables. After this bracing and enjoyable experience, we all returned to the Hotel, where group photographs were taken.

Our Banquet began at five in the afternoon. The senior member present, Mr. H. F. Sampson, was invited to say grace; he is seventy-three years older than 12-year-old Garry Tannahill, our youngest enthusiast. Lucky tickets were drawn for five uncirculated coin prizes donated by some of our hosts. As a memento of the occasion, handsome crocheted slippers donated by Mr. Tannahill were presented to all ladies in attendance. A charming novelty doll, "Queen of the Round-Up", the gift of Mrs. Watts, was won by Mrs. Christensen of Standard, Alberta.

Mr. Tannahill, C.N.A. Director for the Prairie Provinces, thanked all those attending this first reunion in the Canadian West, and hoped that it had been enjoyed sufficiently to warrant making it an annual event. Since this was a new experience for all concerned, he hoped that any oversights might be excused and that the general spirit of friendship would remain as a happy memory. We were particularly delighted to have so many C.N.A. members from Winnipeg, as it gave much encouragement to the Regina organizers; by the same token, we regretted that the Calgary and Edmonton Clubs had no representatives present.

Major Sheldon S. Carroll, first President of the C.N.A., was invited to address the gathering: a summary of his remarks will be found in this number of the Journal. Next to speak was Mr. W. A. Noviski of Medicine Hat, Alberta, first C.N.A. Director for the Prairie Provinces. He said, in part: "I am certainly glad of the opportunity to meet so many collectors here, and extend thanks to those responsible for bringing this about. This has been an enjoyable occasion; I hope that it will become an annual event where collectors have a chance to get together and discuss coins, and see such displays as we have seen today." Mr. Vincent, President of the Manitoba Coin Club, then told the gathering that he was pleased by his Club's turnout, thanked the Regina Coin Club on behalf of his members for initiating the Round-Up and hoped that when their turn came Winnipeg might do as well. Mr. H. E. Sampson, senior member of the Regina Coin Club, told his listeners about some of the medals in his collection, — one of them an award to a seaman on Nelson's Flagship "Victory" for heroism at the Battle of Trafalgar, another given at the time of the Riel Rebellion.

Subsequently, a floor and mail auction was conducted by Mr. Tannahill, with Mr. Latta as clerk. The most interesting item, a 1921 Canadian half dollar, was sold privately later.

We were pleased to learn that Mr. Noviski has a second hobby, — shooting movies. Throughout the day he was busy in various positions and places with his little camera, trying to get all present into one or more films. If these turn out well, he will make them available for viewing to the C.N.A. regional groups, after suitable titles have been added.

The event concluded, many hurried off to catch their trains, while others stayed to chat a little longer. It was obvious that everyone had had a thoroughly good time, and all of us look forward to the next Western Round-Up in May, 1957.

Martin M. WATTS,
Secretary,
Regina Coin Club.

Summary of Major S.S. Carroll's Address to the Western Round-Up in Regina on May 20, 1956

I have several reasons for being pleased today, — first of all, because I realize how much conventions of this kind mean to collectors, to the welfare of local clubs and to the well-being of the Canadian Numismatic Association. I have experienced Western hospitality before, but never quite like what I have encountered here today. It has been magnificent.

Before going any further, I must express to you the personal regards and best wishes of Mr. Potter and the other officers of the Canadian Numismatic Association. For many reasons it was impossible for them to come, so I have been asked to represent them. Mr. Potter asked me to express to you his very best wishes and his regrets that he was unable to attend. Last week I had a very enjoyable time in the company of Mr. Ferguson. He also asked me to convey to you his very best personal regards.

Now, gatherings of this kind do more than anything else to promote unity among numismatists. I have been collecting coins for about twenty-five years, and that is nothing compared to some of the others.

I started in a small town; I had never seen a catalogue, and did not know there were magazines published about numismatics. It took me a long time to find out these things. Many a time I wished that there was a local club, or a national association. I had heard about the American Numismatic Association, but it was concerned primarily with American coins. Ever since, I have had two great wishes: one, that there might be a Canadian Numismatic Association, and this has now been fulfilled; the other, that we could arouse as great an interest among American collectors over the Canadian series as existed years ago. Some of the finest collections of Canadian coins and tokens were formed in the United States by American collectors about the beginning of this century.

In Canada, Canadian numismatics had its heyday in the latter part of the 19th Century. There were several coin societies in the East: Ottawa and Montreal were among the first to organize such groups in North America. However, interest among Canadian collectors fell off badly during the Second World War, and several of the societies folded. When I settled in Ottawa after the War, I found that there were four numismatists meeting once a month. Mr. L. J. P. Brunet, our immediate past President, was the one who started the first gatherings. The others were Mr. Potter, Mr. James Hector — the first collector to note the Canadian "dot" coinage and Mr. Maurice Lafortune. I got in touch with them, and asked to join. The group grew to seven or eight, and we decided to form a club. In that way, we could get some publicity: the news would appear in the paper, and we were fortunate to receive coverage from both the local newspapers, the Ottawa Citizen and the Ottawa Journal. I was the first Secretary of the Ottawa Coin Club.

There was no looking back, for soon we had some 25 members. Many people from outside sent in enquiries about joining our group. Notices were sent to The Numismatist. The Numismatic Scrapbook Magazine and Seaby's Bulletin. We soon found that there were more members outside Ottawa than in the city itself. So, it was decided to reorganize as the Canadian Numismatic Association. I had the pleasure of serving as President of the Canadian Numismatic Association during its first three years. They were not very glorious, but certainly most interesting.

We decided to publish a bulletin. Fortunately, there were facilities for mimeographing in my office, and that is where the first issues of the C.N.A. Bulletin were run off. During its first year all the officers were Ottawa men, and we held a meeting each time a Bulletin was due; we would walk around a table picking up page 1, 2, 3 and so on, staple them together, address and stamp them for the mail; these were our executive meetings. After a while, we were able to let the job out. The Bulletin proved a great aid to Canadian numismatics.

We are now one of the largest Numismatic Associations in the world, all this having been accomplished since the Second World War. I think we can be proud of our latest venture, The Canadian Numismatic Journal, and there is some reason to hope that the time is approaching when advertising will carry a good part of the publication costs.

Still, the most essential factor is that we have strong, active Chapters and Clubs, from the West Coast to Montreal. Unfortunately, there are none in the Maritimes. We find our strength in the Chapters, and in affiliated Clubs. The American Numismatic Association was founded in 1891, but it was not until the middle Twenties that their membership passed the thousand mark, whereas we have passed it in about five years. A large part of our membership is drawn from the United States — some 40 per cent. Many American collectors specialized in the United States series and had completed them as far as their resources permitted. Since they were looking for something new and attractive, the time was ripe for introducing American numismatists to another series similar to their own, with the same language and denominations, — the Canadian series. That, too, has helped to make possible our Association.

One thing more, — though this is only my personal opinion, — a lot of collectors are missing much of the pleasure Canadian numismatics has to offer when they stop with the decimal series; our currencies prior to Confederation are just as interesting. Another fascinating field is that of the tokens. Numismatics is the science of coins and medals. We have largely neglected Canadian medals, yet no section is more completely tied in with Canadian history than the medals.

Much has still to be done in research work and writing. During the Nineteen Twenties Courteau was turning out a number of books, most of which are out of date since so much more has been discovered. Then, too, books like Breton, Léroux, Frossard's Franco-American Jetons and McLachlan's Communion Tokens are too expensive for the majority of collectors, besides being practically impossible to find. We now need numismatists who will take the time and trouble to do the necessary research work required for filling out our fund of information, so that all of us will be able to learn what we should know about Canadian coins, tokens, medals, decorations and paper money.

I should like to say to you in Regina how much we in the East appreciate your promotion of this splendid meeting, since it is usually impossible for most of you to get down to the C.N.A. convention in the East. All C.N.A. officers are now from the East, but there is no reason why our president should not come from the West; however, that will not occur until you people start nominating and electing someone from the West. In the meantime, I should like to say that until such time as it is possible to hold a convention in the West, keep up the kind of good work you have done here! When the convention is held here, we in the East will undoubtedly have a smaller one of our own! My very best wishes to all you good people in Western Canada, and may you continue to enjoy success in collecting!

C.N.A. Chapters and Club Reports

CHAPTER # 1 (Ottawa) held its sixth meeting for 1956 on Monday evening, June 11, in the Grey Room of the Public Archives of Canada. Seventeen members and two guests were present on this occasion.

Major S. S. Carroll gave an excellent outline of events at the Regina Round-Up in May. He stated that a number of 1936 "dot" coins and Canadian 1921 half dollars are being found in Western Canada; apparently, most of these were sent to the Prairie Provinces and British Columbia when they were issued by the Royal Canadian Mint, so that it is only reasonable to suppose that more of them will turn up in that part of the country.

A good variety of Fall programmes having been suggested, members decided that four, including two auctions, should be worked out by our executive on the basis of these proposals. At least two evenings will be devoted to special speakers, with new movies to illustrate their subject material.

The meeting concluded with a hectic and amusing auction of Canadian decimal coins of the period up to 1900, conducted by Major Carroll. The next occasion of our coming together in Ottawa will be on the second Monday of September.

A. E. H. PETRIE,
Sec.-Treas.

CHAPTER # 3 (Peterborough-Lindsay) met on May 12, with an attendance of seventeen members. Future meetings are to be held at the Empress Hotel in Peterborough on the second Saturday of each month.

The Chapter's new emblem, designed and presented to us by Mr. Robert Cardwell, will be used on all our stationery and other printed materials; cleverly utilizing both sides of the Canadian 1875 quarter for its effect, the artistry of this new device aroused much admiration among our membership. President Berg thanked Mr. Cardwell on behalf of the Chapter, and announced that a Merit Card will be given to him for services rendered.

Mr. R. Naish displayed a photographic enlargement of the 1936 "dot" quarter, and mentioned that similar prints may be obtained locally.

Every monthly meeting, fifteen minutes are devoted to our project of listing "unlisted" tokens. This time, a vote of thanks was extended to Mr. K. Bennett of Willowdale for his assistance in providing listings and excellent rubbings of the Ontario tokens in his possession. An offer of a quantity of Ontario tokens by Mr. Leslie C. Hill is also being considered.

At the conclusion of the meeting, an enjoyable auction was conducted by Mr. Storey.

W. George P. BENTON,
Sec.-Treas.

CHAPTER # 4 (Hamilton) held its meeting of Sunday evening, May 13 at the Y.M.C.A., with fourteen members and one visitor in attendance.

A motion was made that all future meetings be held on Sunday evenings in The Wentworth Arms Hotel, at Main and Hughson Streets. This carried unanimously. It was decided that our gatherings should take place on the second Sunday of each month, and that they could continue during the summer months.

A donation auction will be given on June 10: each member is being asked to contribute a coin for this purpose, with the entire proceeds going into the Chapter funds.

Three of our members displayed coins as indicated: Mr. B. R. Brace — Ancient, mediaeval, and curious money; Mr. D. Penfold — twenty-four crown-sized coins; and Mr. G. Culp — twenty-two pieces of Austria, Canada, Great Britain, France, the Netherlands, South Africa and the United States.

The usual trading session was held at the conclusion of the evening.

Miss Thelma PELLETIER,
Secretary.

CHAPTER # 7 (Vancouver) held its regular monthly meeting in the Labour Temple on Thursday, May 3, with President P. Bengough in the Chair, assisted by Vice-President Eveleigh and Treasurer Leslie C. Hill, who officiated as Secretary. Six new members joined our Chapter on this occasion.

Mr. Galand was congratulated for the excellent coin displays he had prepared and exhibited for a fortnight in two of the main jewellery stores of West Vancouver.

A 1936 "dot" dime submitted for examination by one of the new members was — after much deliberation and close scrutiny — pronounced genuine. This rare and valuable coin is in Fine condition, and appears to be the seventh "dot" dime listed.

The First Annual Banquet of our Chapter will be held at the Devonshire Hotel on June 7, and a large attendance is anticipated. The Press is expected to cover our special auction. We are proud that this Chapter, starting with seven members a year ago, can claim more than thirty active members today.

Officers for the coming Year were elected at our business session; their names and positions are as follows: President, Mr. P. Bengough; Vice-Pres., Mr. R. S. Eveleigh; Secretary, Mr. C. K. Stanley; Treasurer, Mr. Leslie C. Hill; Publicity Director, Mr. N. Papafingos; Librarian, Mr. M. Freeman.

N. PAPAFINGOS,
Publicity Director.

MONTREAL COIN CLUB'S 16th meeting was held on May 30, in the form of a Dinner at Queen's Hotel, with thirty members and guests present.

The unavoidable absence of Mr. B. A. Seaby of London, England, made a substitute programme necessary, and Mr. J. Douglas Ferguson kindly consented to speak on Canadian medals. In addition, Mr. Fred Bowman described some interesting items, and Dr. K. Gaver talked briefly on keeping records and the cataloguing of collections. Mr. W. H. Rawlings exhibited a trayful of mediaeval coins from many countries, which provoked much interested comment.

W. H. RAWLINGS,
Secretary.

The TORONTO COIN CLUB gathering of May 26 was attended by 32 members and 6 guests, with Dr. J. S. Wilkinson presiding.

Our speaker, Mr. B. A. Seaby of London, England, reviewed the immensely large field of general numismatics and then answered a wide variety of questions. Mr. Seaby deplored the tendency of North American numismatics to go in for collecting their own date series and rolls of coins, rather than study a broader section of numismatics; he feels that the coinages of Ancient Greece and Rome are neglected here. His example of the rarest recent British coin, the 1933 penny, stimulated much discussion.

Mr. Willey showed an English shilling of 1840, which Mr. Seaby declared to be a scarce date. This was purchased in Buffalo, recently, for very little. Mr. C. Kekewich had a U.S. 1916 Denver dime; it rarely comes in such perfect condition.

The "Admittance Coin" Draw was won by Dr. Wilkinson. Our Table Auctions are proving a great success, with record sales on the present occasion. A Canadian 1947 Maple Leaf half dollar with curved "7", in E. F. condition, was sold during the evening.

For the summer, our regular meetings will continue in the Royal York Hotel, at 2 P.M. on the fourth Saturday of each month.

Peter S. FAVRO,
Secretary.

WINDSOR COIN CLUB'S project of entertaining the Scouts of Windsor was a great success in spite of the current transportation strike, though more might have attended if those services had been available. Our project was undertaken as a result of executive conferences with local Scout officials. An exhibition of coins, with talks and explanations, took place at Scout Headquarters on May 23, Displays of numismatic material were provided by Messrs. F. O. Hicks, J. J. Dick, George Bull and Mrs. Bull, by Mrs. I. R. Austin and Miss Mabel Money. They included a complete set of C.N.A. Bulletins, old and new coins of India, the 1951 Festival Commemoratives of Great Britain, British Caribbean decimals, besides Union of South Africa, Canadian 1955, United States 1954, British 1953, and other recent series in folders. Paper currencies of many lands were also on display.

President F. O. Hicks gave a brief talk on coin terminology. The numismatic items shown were examined with great interest by the Scouts, and gave rise to numerous questions. Club members made many coins available to the boys at most reasonable prices, to stimulate their continued interest in coin collecting.

Miss Mabel MONEY,
Recorder.
